SOLEMNITY OF BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass today is celebrated in Traditional Rite (see pg. 15 and on)

Mass Intention for Aiden, Natalie and Jack who are receiving their First Holy Communion today ;

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (2:42-47)

The brothers and sisters devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one's need. Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple area and to breaking bread in their homes. They ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Psalm (34) Response: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord

I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall be ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the LORD; the lowly will hear me and be glad.

Response: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord

Glorify the LORD with me, let us together extol his name.
I sought the LORD, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears.

Response: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord

Look to him that you may be radiant with joy, and your faces may not blush with shame.
When the poor one called out, the LORD heard, and from all his distress he saved him.

Response: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord

A reading from the First Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians (11:23-26)

Brothers and sisters: I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread
that came down from heaven, says the Lord;
whoever eats this bread will live forever.

We are Catholic faith community called to serve God and others through Eucharist, prayer, education, and daily living of the Gospel values. Therefore everyone is always welcome to worship with us in our church. It is a house of prayer for all, who with sincere heart desire to worship the only God in his Son Jesus Christ.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St Mark (14:12-26)

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?" He sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city and a man will meet you, carrying a jar of water. Follow him. Wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"' Then he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there." The disciples then went off, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many. Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God." Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

General Intercession: Response: Father, in your love, hear our prayer.

Do this in memory of Me...

Every Eucharist is a unique celebration. When the celebrant takes a little piece of bread and repeats the words that Jesus spoke at the Last Supper, "This is my body", and when he takes wine and says, "This is my blood", the bread is no longer bread and the wine is no longer wine. At this very moment we participate in a marvelous miracle, we called Transubstantiation.

Thus Eucharist is a gift, not just to be adored and revered, but also to be consumed, digested and lived by every Christian. What were once the simple gifts of bread and wine truly become transformed into the Body and Blood of our Saviour. It is not a private gift, but a communal one. When the priest holds up the consecrated Host and the cup of Wine and says, " This is My Body – this is My Blood ", he is also saying, for Jesus, "you are my body... you are my blood." - Jesus gives us His Body and Blood so that He might live in us and so that we, then, might become life for the world. But God is always new, always challenging. Each new circumstance of our life should lead us to a new understanding of His goodness and love.

♥ If you feel that you have experienced in some ways the blessing in your life, maybe it is important to share with others what you have received from God. In your generosity, please consider a donation or bequest to Holy Saviour Parish. Thank you very much and may God continue His blessing upon you.
