A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (5:27-32,40-41)

When the captain and the court officers had brought the apostles in and made them stand before the Sanhedrin, the high priest questioned them, "We gave you strict orders, did we not, to stop teaching in that name? Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and want to bring this man's blood upon us." But Peter and the apostles said in reply, "We must obey God rather than men. The God of our ancestors raised Jesus, though you had him killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as leader and savior to grant Israel repentance and forgiveness of sins.

We are witnesses of these things, as is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

The Sanhedrin ordered the apostles to stop speaking in the name of Jesus, and dismissed them. So they left the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name.

Psalm (30) Response: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will extol you, O LORD, for you drew me clear and did not let my enemies rejoice over me.
O LORD, you brought me up from the netherworld;
you preserved me from among those going down into the pit.

Response: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Sing praise to the LORD, you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name.
For his anger lasts but a moment; a lifetime, his good will.
At nightfall, weeping enters in, but with the dawn, rejoicing.

Response: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Hear, o LORD, and have pity on me; o LORD be my helper.
You changed my mourning into dancing;
O LORD, my God, forever will I give you thanks.

Response: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

A reading from the Book of Revelation (5:11-14)

I, John, looked and heard the voices of many angels who surrounded the throne and the living creatures and the elders. They were countless in number, and they cried out in a loud voice: "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing." Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, everything in the universe, cry out: "To the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor, glory and might, forever and ever." The four living creatures answered, "Amen," and the elders fell down and worshiped.

We are Catholic community called to serve God and others through Eucharist, prayer, education, and daily living of the Gospel values.
Everyone is always welcome to worship with us in our beautiful church. It is a house of prayer for all, who with sincere heart desire to praise the only God.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Christ is risen, creator of all; he has shown pity on all people.

A reading from the Gospel according to St John (21:1-14)

At that time, Jesus revealed himself to his disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself in this way. Together were Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "we also will come with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?" They answered him, "No." So he said to them, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something." So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea. The other disciples came in the boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards, dragging the net with the fish. When they climbed out on shore, they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you just caught." So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after being raised from the dead.

General Intercession: Response: The Risen Lord, hear our prayer.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

➔ The month of MAY within the Catholic Church is traditionally dedicated to our Lady. Therefore, as it was in the past years, on each Sunday of this month, right after Holy Mass, we will pray the Litany to Our Lady.

➔ Healing Mass with Sacrament of Anointing will be held this week on Wednesday, May 4, at 7:00 PM.

➔ We are collecting items for the auction for the 5th Annual 'Quarter Night' fundraiser which is scheduled for Saturday, May 21st. We are still collecting items for auction. If you can help and make contribution, please bring your items to the parish hall now. Thank you.

➔ UKRAINIAN AID. So far, we collected $2,280 to help Ukrainian refugees in Poland. The money will be sent to the bishop's office in Manchester, NH, and from there, along with other donations, directly to our sister church in Poland for distribution to the refugees. Thank you very much for your generosity.

➔ As agreed, our $37,000 roofs replacement project fundraising campaign is underway. This is a FREE WILL donation and all the money raised will go directly to fund this project. We appreciate every single or regular monthly donation. There are specially designed envelopes for this purpose at the back of the church. Recently we received donations from Lorraine Zollo, Rory Carlson and Ken Krasko, which raises the collected amount to $13,110 - 35,43%. Thank you for your understanding and support.

➔ Pastoral Care Visit. The two great Sacraments: The Eucharist & Holy Anointing may be a source of grace and health for a sick person. So, if you are confined at home or have a family member at hospital or nursing home unable to take part in Sunday Mass and Sacraments, please notify the father to set the day and time for pastoral visit. In emergency call directly the father mobile phone 475-208-4455.

➔ Please remember in your prayer those who are suffering, sick or confined at home, hospitals and nursing homes, especially our parishioners and friends: Cheryl Peters (Oxford CT), Diana Raczkowski (Naugatuck CT), Sarah Squezzello (Stratford CT), Logan Caruso (Wolcott CT), Robert Trussell (Plantsville CT) & Agnes Geruch.
