Holy Mass at 9:00 AM

www.holysaviourpncc.org

The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass today is celebrated in Contemporary Rite (see pg. 63 and on);

Mass Intention for this Sunday is available. If you have one, please see father Paul before the Mass.

A reading from the Book of Deuteronomy (4:32-34, 39-40)

Moses said to the people: "Ask now of the days of old, before your time, ever since God created man upon the earth; ask from one end of the sky to the other: Did anything so great ever happen before? Was it ever heard of? Did a people ever hear the voice of God speaking from the midst of fire, as you did, and live? Or did any god venture to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by testings, by signs and wonders, by war, with strong hand and outstretched arm, and by great terrors, all of which the LORD, your God, did for you in Egypt before your very eyes? This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other. You must keep his statutes and commandments that I enjoin on you today, that you and your children after you may prosper, and that you may have long life on the land which the LORD, your God, is giving you forever."

Psalm (33)

Response: Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

Upright is the word of the LORD, and all his works are trustworthy.

He loves justice and right; of the kindness of the Lord the earth is full. Response: Blessed the people...

By the word of the LORD the heavens were made; by the breath of his mouth all their host.

For he spoke, and it was made; he commanded, and it stood forth. Response: Blessed the people...

See, the eyes of the LORD are upon those who fear him, upon those who hope for his kindness,

To deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine. Response: Blessed the people...

Our soul waits for the LORD, who is our help and our shield.

May your kindness, O LORD, be upon us who have put our hope in you.

Response: Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own.

A reading from the Letter of St Paul to the Romans (8:14-17)

Brothers and sisters: For those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit;
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

We are Catholic community called to serve God and others through Eucharist, prayer, education, and daily living of the Gospel values.

Everyone is always welcome to worship with us in our beautiful church. It is a house of prayer for all, who with sincere heart desire to praise the only God.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St Matthew (28:16-20)

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they all saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

General Intercession: Response: Lord, send your Spirit upon us, and renew us.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

➔ The month of MAY within the Catholic Church is traditionally dedicated to our Lady. Therefore, as it was in the past years, on each Sunday of this month, right after Holy Mass, we will pray the Litany to Our Lady.

➔ Under the updated state regulations most of the restriction regarding Covid-19 have been lifted. In our parish, 100% are fully vaccinated! So, wearing a mask in the church is now optional, but it is advised to keep yourself distanced, to make yourself feel more comfortable.

➔ Holy Communion visits (sick visits). If you are confined at home or have a family member at hospital or nursing home unable to take part in Sunday Mass and Sacraments, please notify the father to set the day and time for pastoral visit. In case of emergency call directly the father @ 475-208-4455.

➔ Please remember in your prayer those who are suffering, sick or confined at home, hospitals and nursing homes, especially our parishioners and friends: Cheryl Peters (Oxford, CT), Diana Raczowski (Naugatuck, CT), Logan Caruso (Wolcott, CT), Sarah Squezzello (Stratford, CT) and Wendell Barry (Stratford, CT).

✠ Rest in Peace - In your charity please pray for the soul of Edwin Zemeir who passed away on May 22. His funeral was held in our Church on Wednesday, May 26 at 11:00 AM. Ed has been buried at our cemetery of Holy Saviour in Naugatuck. ~ May his soul and the souls of all of our departed rest in peace.

Why does the church assign a special Sunday to glorify the Holy Trinity?

From Advent through Pentecost, the church celebrates with joy and thanksgiving what Father, Son, and Holy Spirit have done to accomplish the salvation of sinful humanity. During the Season after Pentecost, we focus on how we as Christians ought to respond to the love that God has shown us. Trinity Sunday is the solemn day on which we praise and adore God both for what He has done for the world and for who He is. As it is so beautifully confessed in the Athanasian Creed: "...We worship one God in Trinity and Trinity in Unity, Neither confusing the persons nor dividing the substance. For the Father is one person, the Son is another, and the Holy Spirit is another. But the Godhead of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit is one: the glory equal, the majesty coeternal."

Let us remember today that the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the most fundamental and essential teaching in the "hierarchy of the truths of faith". The whole history of salvation is identical with the history of the way and the means by which the one true God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, reveals himself to men "and reconciles and unites with himself those who turn away from sin". For us Christians this feast can be a reminder to pray with much greater meaning and respectfulness than most common of all prayers, so common we hardly think of it as a prayer - the Sign of the Cross. It contains in so few words and a simple movement of the arm all that we believe in and all that we live for. Let us resolve to make this sign with greater dignity and reverence and in a spirit of real prayer.
