The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass today is celebrated in Contemporary Rite (begins from page 63);

With a special intention for Helen and † Daniel Warner; Upon the request of Cheryl Peters;

A reading from the Book of Daniel (12:1-3)

In those days, I Daniel, heard this word of the Lord: "At that time there shall arise Michael, the great prince, guardian of your people; it shall be a time unsurpassed in distress since nations began until that time. At that time your people shall escape, everyone who is found written in the book.

"Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake; some shall live forever, others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace. – "But the wise shall shine brightly like the splendor of the firmament, and those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever."

Psalm (16)      Response: You are my inheritance, O Lord!

O LORD, my allotted portion and my cup, you it is who hold fast my lot.
I set the LORD ever before me; with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.

Response: You are my inheritance, O Lord!

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices, my body, too, abides in confidence;
because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld, nor will you suffer your faithful one to undergo corruption.

Response: You are my inheritance, O Lord!

You will show me the path to life, fullness of joys in your presence, the delights at your right hand forever.

Response: You are my inheritance, O Lord!

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews (10:11-14,18)

Brothers and sisters: Every priest stands daily at his ministry, offering frequently those same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But this one offered one sacrifice for sins, and took his seat forever at the right hand of God; now he waits until his enemies are made his footstool. For by one offering he has made perfect forever those who are being consecrated. Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer offering for sin.

Gospel Acclamation:                      Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Be vigilant at all times and pray that you have the strength to stand before the Son of Man.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St Mark (13:24-32)

Jesus said to his disciples: "In those days after that tribulation the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

We are Catholic faith community called to serve God and others through Eucharist, prayer, education, and daily living of the Gospel values. Therefore everyone is always welcome to worship with us in our church. It is a house of prayer for all, who with sincere heart desire to worship the only God in his Son Jesus Christ.

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky.

"Learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. In the same way, when you see these things happening, know that he is near, at the gates. Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. "But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father."

General Intercession:      Response: Father, have mercy on us, your loving children.

What the Scripture tells us today...

As the church brings its liturgical year to an end all the readings of today speak about the end of the world, the end of time, the final coming of Jesus to take all people and reunite the entire creation to him. Today's gospel anticipates the dramatic events that will take place at the end of times. It speaks of a time of suffering, the sun being darkened, the moon not giving its light, the stars falling from heaven, and the powers of Heaven being shaken. It will be a time when Heaven and earth will pass away forever.

Today when we look round the world, we see so much of sufferings, hardships and pain. There is much corruption, terrorism and poverty. But here we have a message of hope in the second coming of Christ and also a present hope that in spite of the destruction and pain, Christ's words will not pass away. We now visualize the Kingdom of God that offers love, compassion, kindness and mercy, the sign of new hope of the future. Even in the midst of suffering and hardship, the word of God continues to be alive and active. As we wait in hope for the fulfillment of the kingdom of God in Christ and look forward to a just, loving and peaceful world.
